History of Mariachi Bakery

As the third generation in the family bakery business, the founders of Mariachi Bakery understand the comfort delicious pan Dulce, specialty coffee and traditional food can bring to a home. Family baking traditions date back to the early 1950s, where the Areliz family consisted of several “panaderos” and proudly baked delicious pan dulce for their small “pueblo” in Mexico. Juan Areliz, one of the founders, of Mariachi Bakery opened his first Mexican Panaderia in 1980 in the Los Angeles area. As the family grew, so did the love for traditional Pan Dulce. Alongside his brother and his two sons, the Areliz family opened the doors to more panaderías in 2005 to deliver the same quality pastries and pan dulce they enjoyed with their families.

Now as the family continues the grow, the new generation of Panaderías will be coming soon to a location near you. Mariachi holds a special place in Mexican culture, as does pan Dulce. With the experience the founders have, Mariachi Bakery will use the finest ingredients to continue its legacy of serving a piece of Mexican culture to Southern California while giving it a modern twist.

What will you be enjoying today: Traditional Pan Dulce, such as Conchas & Orejas, or our savory Dulce de Leche Croissants? A delicious Cafe de Olla or an Horchata Latte? Refreshing Abuelita Cream Cold Brew? Our Popular Breakfast Tortas or a savory Empanada? Whatever you may be in the mood for, our team at Mariachi Bakery will ensure you an enjoyable visit.
